

Nick Falaschi

Austin, TX

jfalasc@wgu.edu

737-213-0943

Professional Summary

- Developer with a Bachelor's in Software Engineering (C# focus)
- Over 2 years of experience in high volume data entry and analysis
- Designed and maintained over 20 live-service games and mods
- Managed a community of more than 200 players

Work Experience

Data Labeling Analyst at Meta

TEKsystems-Austin, TX

September 2025 to Present

Independent Web Developer

January 2020 to Present

- Prototyped a news application for The Texas Tribune's "Schools Explorer" by parsing raw government data into an interactive, trend-aware table
- Developed 22 unique web games, reaching a community of more than 200 players and facilitating over 50,000 player interactions
- Maintained live-service games, implementing regular updates and resolving player feedback daily
- Developed game mods for popular titles like The Sims 4, World of Warcraft, and Baldur's Gate 3
- Used the Unity engine to create a tutorial tool for World of Warcraft
- Developed an interactive website to showcase my work, accessible at <https://goodjudygames.com>

AI Trainer

DataAnnotation-Remote

February 2025 to August 2025

- Evaluated large language model (LLM) responses for quality and safety, with a focus on improving performance in complex coding and software engineering tasks
- Authored high-quality training data and instructional prompts to enhance the reasoning capabilities and proficiency of generative AI systems

Sanitation Worker

Pluckers LLC-Austin, TX

August 2023 to November 2024

- Developed and implemented strategies to ensure compliance with industry sanitation standards
- Assisted with training new employees and managing inventory

Member Services Representative

Excel Fitness-Austin, TX

November 2021 to May 2023

- Sold memberships, conducted gym tours, and provided exceptional customer service to clients

COVID-19 Site Ops & Data Entry

Ascend National Healthcare Staffing-Austin, TX

July 2020 to November 2021

- Played a critical role in assembling COVID isolation facilities and managing data entry at vaccination sites

Patient Access Representative

Advanced Pain Care-Austin, TX

August 2020 to December 2020

- Implemented COVID-19 screening protocols to ensure patient and staff safety

Education

Software Engineering (Bachelor of Science)

Western Governors University

May 2022 to August 2025

Industry certifications earned during the program:

- CompTIA A+
- CompTIA Project+
- AWS Certified Cloud Practitioner

Software projects completed during the program:

- Used C# to develop a retail inventory management app
- Used .NET MAUI to create a mobile academic management app
- Used Angular and REST APIs to create an interactive digital globe

Links

<https://goodjudygames.com>

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/nfals/>